6. Tavern Twelve (Liquor License Violation) – June 21, 2013

On Friday, June 21, 2013 at about 1530 hours I, Sgt. Robillard and Lt.

Tainsh were conducting the 2013 Statewide Alcohol Purchase Survey in the City of Warwick. The Youth Inspector was identified as Calvin Carpenter. Mr. Carpenter was explained the directions for attempting to purchase alcohol and given the buy money.

Mr. Carpenter was driven to Tavern Twelve and entered the establishment. We were then notified via telephone that he made a successful buy of a bottle of Heineken. We entered the bar and Mr. Carpenter pointed out (S1) Christina Frazier (2/21/86) as the bartender who served him without asking for identification to confirm his age.

Ms. Frazier was informed that Mr. Carpenter was not of age. She was then informed that a report would be completed and forwarded to the Board of Public Safety for a review.

The receipt for the transaction was placed into evidence.
